Arvind Subramanian is the Chief Economic Advisor to the Government of India. He served as the Dennis Weatherstone Senior Fellow at the Peterson Institute for International Economics and as an economist at the International Monetary Fund. He is a widely cited expert on the economics of India, China, and the changing balance of global economic power.

The Economic Survey 2018, prepared under his guidance, is the flagship annual document of the Ministry of Finance, Government of India. It reviews the developments in the Indian economy over the past year.
