

Harsh Malhotra Endowment Grant, 2023

The Dr Harsh Malhotra Endowment Grant for PhD students

CDE has received a generous grant from THE SANTOSH AND DR. HARSH MALHOTRA CHARITABLE TRUST, in memory of Dr Harsh Malhotra, for the purpose of extending financial support to PhD students registered at the Department of Economics. Dr Harsh Malhotra did his Master's from the Department of Economics, Delhi School of Economics before getting his PhD degree from the Toulouse School of Economics, France.

The guidelines as per the Terms of Reference of the Dr Harsh Malhotra Endowment Grant are stated below:

- Some amount can be given to selected meritorious and needy PhD students registered with the Department of Economics and affiliated to CDE for a maximum five years on monthly basis.
- An additional supporting grant may be given to the registered PhD students for field survey, data purchase, software purchase, and similar purposes for which applications will be reviewed quarterly.

Current PhD students who are interested in applying for the above Dr Harsh Malhotra Endowment Grant are required to fill the below mentioned Google Form. Short-listed entrants may be invited for an interview.

Application link: Google form

Last date to apply: March 27, 2024

CDE