

Research Assistant Positions at CDE, Delhi School of Economics

The Centre for Development Economics at Delhi School of Economics invites applications from eligible candidates for the posts of Research Assistants/Associates for research study on Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises (MSMEs). It is an extensive empirical study involving use of various secondary and primary data sources based on fieldwork. The selected candidates will be working under a team of Senior Faculty and eminent researchers.

Duration of positions is six-months to one-year with the first month as probation period. Emolument will be 25-50K per-month consolidated, depending on qualification and experience.

Responsibilities: Typical responsibilities include the following: Literature reviews; data collection from secondary source, field visits (including outside of Delhi) for primary data collection; analysis of data; maintaining accurate records of data collected; supervise interns working on the research project; Prepare progress reports; Prepare other articles, reports, and presentations as required from time to time.

You would be expected to support the project research by conducting rigorous statistical and econometric analysis using software like Stata, R and Python

Application Requirements: Master's degree in Economics, Statistics, Public Policy, or related field with emphasis on quantitative and/or analytical skills. Email your Resume and Transcripts before May 21, 2024 to rsinghecondse@gmail.com